Children Sleeping at Uncle David's Lodge

With parent's permission, all children age 10 and above are welcome to sleep on the loft or on the deck of Uncle David's Lodge in sleeping bags. With parent's permission, children 8-10 may sleep at the lodge if they have an older child as their overnight pal (buddy-system). We ask that children less than 8 have a parent present.

Children camping in Meadow Valley under the stars

With parent's permission, all children age 12 and above are welcome to camp at Meadow Valley by the pond. With parent's permission, children 10-12 may camp at Meadow Valley if they have an older child as their overnight pal (buddy-system). We ask that children less than age 10 have a parent present.

Staying hydrated during the trip

Each family should take responsibility to have an ice-chest full of water in their vehicle. For those renting cars at the airport, a cheap Styrofoam cooler will do the trick.

Tentative Dessert Assignments in Nauvoo

Suggest purchasing brownies, ice cream, a cake, etc.
